

Johns Hopkins University

---

Toni Gillotti

Master of Science in Counseling

1. What is the timeline for submitting an application?
2. Is there a fee for submitting an application?
3. What is the minimal score for the GRE or MAT?
4. How many credits are required?
5. Is there a distance component or are all classes on campus?

1. This year's deadline is already closed, they only accept students in the fall, next fall's application deadline is Feb. 15, 2021.
2. There is an $80.00 application fee to apply.
3. Passing GRE scores are only needed if cumulative GPA is below a 3.0 on previously earned degree.
4. About 60 credits.
5. Classes can be taken in person or online

Master of Science in Counseling

- 6. Is the program accredited? Is it CACREP, CORE, APA or CSWE?
  - 7. Name one faculty member in the department?
  - 8. Is an essay required?
  - 9. Where is the university located?
  - 10. How much is tuition?
-
- 6. The program is not currently accredited by the CACREP.
  - 7. Matthew Bonner, PhD- Assistant Professor.
  - 8. Applicants need to submit a resume, 2 letters of recommendation, and a two-page essay when applying.
  - 9. Baltimore, Maryland.
  - 10. About $882.00 per credit

11. What is the job market for this job with this degree?

- There are two concentrations: Clinical Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling.
- A Clinical Mental Health Counseling concentration will prepare students to work in a wide range of clinical, human services, and community settings. It will also fulfill the requirements for a LCPC licensure.
- A School Counseling concentration prepares students to work in K-12 schools.